

H C H Tarr

CWGC - SECOND LIEUTENANT HENRY CHARLES HARDIMAN TARR

Royal Army Service Corps
Main Supply Depot

Died 02 February 1919
Age 45 years old

Buried or commemorated at

ALEXANDRIA (HADRA) WAR MEMORIAL CEMETERY C. 171.
Egypt

Secondary Unit, Regiment (E.E.F.).

Notes - Additional Info Son of the late F. J. and S. A. Tarr; husband of Charity Tarr, of Tunnel House, Saltford, Bristol

Notes - Lt. Henry Charles Hardman Tarr. Royal Army Service Corps, died of pneumonia at the Ras-el-Tin Military Hospital on 2 February 1919 aged 45. Buried Row C, Gr. 171, Alexandria (Hedre) War Memorial Cemetery. He was the son of Mr J and Mrs S A Tarr and husband of Charity Tarr of Tunnel House, Saltford. 2nd Lieutenant Henry Tarr, the oldest casualty, lived with his wife Charity at the Tunnel House. Enlisted in 1917 he joined the Egypt Expeditionary Force in February 1918. He died at Ras-el-Tin hospital in February 1919 just before his 46th birthday and is buried in Alexandria.