Stan Fisher is the only son of Stan and Flossie Katherine Fisher, of 11, St Georges Rd, Keynsham, he left a young wife, Audrey Gwendoline, a Cornish Girl in the RAF, who he married in the January before he died. They had no children but he had two sisters Pansy and Phyllis.

He worked with his father, who had a butcher's shop in Gilda Parade. Knowle, this job kept him in Reserve Occupation, exempt from Military Duty, until the D Day landings drew near, when just about everyone of fighting age, including Stan, was drafted to help with the invasion to free Europe.

He served with Royal Artillery 55th West Somerset Field Regiment, 439 Battery and, as he was a butcher, he was in the catering corp.

He was killed 18th July 1944 a few weeks after he was deployed. He was 23. Temporarily buried on the battlefield then re-interred as war came to a close.

His number was 882757 and he now lies in Ranville War Cemetery 11,C.12 about two kilometres south of Sword Beach.
